THE undersigned committee, appointed by the Board of County Commissioners, hereby give notice that they will receive sealed proposals until Saturday, Feb. 2, 1861, at 12 o'clock, M., [at which time they will be opened] for the construction of a bridge across Indian creek, at a place known as Red Rock, said bridge to be built of the best material, and after the plan of the one across Cold Water, known as the McArthur Bridge, and to be finished within two months from the acceptance of the proposal.

All persons offering must mention the names of the security they can give, as the usual bond will be exacted by the Judge of Probate, for the keeping of said bridge in good order five years from its completion. The committee reserve the right to receive such bid as they may think best, or reject any or all of the proposals made, in case they may deem it for the public interest to do so.
